

Oral History Interviewer Notes

For each Oral History, the interviewer submits the Gift and Release Agreement, signed by both the interview and interviewee(s). Following each interview, the interviewer is strongly encouraged to note the following information – using correct spelling – prior to submitting these notes. Thank you, by documenting this key information, you are helping researchers and others tell the story of conservation.

Oral History Details (please check carefully for spelling)

Name of interviewee
Names of people present during the Oral History
Personal names mentioned
Places Mentioned
Projects discussed
Issues Discussed	